Santa Monica, CA - Three Squares Inc. is recruiting active venture capital firms interested in attending an exciting two-day forum designed to showcase the "best of the best" in green technology from solar to biofuels to zero-emission vehicles.

Venture capital investments in U.S. cleantech companies grew by 41 percent to $961.7 million in Q2 2008, according to an Ernst & Young report based on data from Dow Jones Venture One. It is no surprise that in 2009 investments in cleantech continue this trend.

We are honored that representatives from the following firms will be in attendance at the Green Tech Connect Forum to review the latest and greatest offerings from green tech companies, including five of the nation's leading venture capital firms - Kleiner Perkins Caufield & Byers (KPCB), Khosla Ventures, Rustic Canyon Partners, Angeleno Group and Craton Equity Partners.
